

Meet Your Obstetrician and Gynecologist

Laura Darko, MD

I strive to best serve my patients by taking my time to really get to know them as people. In doing so, I am able to understand their needs and provide the best care possible. I want my patients to feel understood, cared for, and completely comfortable speaking with me about all topics. This kind of caring attitude sets me apart from other providers.

Why I Chose Health Care

"I decided to go into medicine after going to my aunt's OB appointments. The physician was so caring and took the time to really care for her. I knew I wanted to be just like him and provide the same level of care that he provided my aunt."
