

Meet Your Otolaryngologist

I want my patients to have a clear understanding of their ailment, as well as the possible treatments available to them, including the risks and benefits so that they can make a well-informed decision that is best for their own needs. I want them to feel like they are the most important part of the medical team that is treating them.

Amit Date, MD, MBA

Why I became a Medical Provider

"I was initially attracted to medicine for the scientific aspects of medical technology and innovation. As I began to have more interaction with patients, especially in the surgical realm, I began to realize that I enjoyed taking care of patients and explaining complex medical/surgical problems to them and guiding them through these problems."

Residency

Southern Illinois University, College of Medicine, Springfield, IL;
Chief Resident Otolaryngology Head & Neck Surgery

Internship

Southern Illinois University, College of Medicine, Springfield, IL,
General Surgery

MD

University of Illinois, College of Medicine, Urbana-Champaign, IL

MBA

University of Illinois, College of Business, Urbana-Champaign, IL

Certification

American Board of Otolaryngology

Memberships

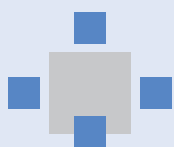

American Academy of Otolaryngology Head & Neck Surgery

Department of Allergy/ENT

In the Department of Allergy/ENT, Dr. Date treats patients with disorders or illnesses of the ears, nose, throat, and neck. He has experience with adult and pediatric surgery specializing in general otolaryngology, otology, laryngology, head and neck cancer, endocrine surgery, allergy, and rhinology.

Dr. Date has roots in the community, and he has completed all of his medical training in Central Illinois, including his medical education right here at the University of Illinois, Medical Scholars Program. Because of this, he has a personal interest and attachment to the community and feels an obligation to provide the highest level of care and commitment to the community.

When Dr. Date is not working, he enjoys cooking, painting, traveling and playing sports.

CHRISTIE CLINIC

We listen. We care.

www.christieclinic.com

Amit Date, MD, MBA
Department of Allergy/ENT

Christie Clinic on University
101 West University Avenue
Champaign, IL 61820
217.366.1243 Telephone
217.366.1220 Fax