

Meet Your Dermatologist

Caitlyn Foote, MD, FAAD

I strive to best serve my patients by having a collaborative relationship, allowing for development of treatment plans that are best suited for each individual and their lifestyle. I hope that they feel relaxed and able to be open with their health concerns.

Why I Became a Medical Provider

"Healthcare piqued my interest from a young age since both of my parents worked in the field. Seeing many providers treat their patients in a happy, caring, and informed environment early on, encouraged me to pursue a career in medicine. Dermatology is unique in that the skin is visible to everyone and having a dermatological condition can have a profound impact on the way an individual is perceived and potentially treated by others. It has been incredibly rewarding to treat patients and see the direct effects treating their skin has had in their life."
